B. H. BRISTOW,

SUBJECT TO THE DECISION OF THE

WOOLEN FACTORY.

There ought to be a woolen factory in Reno. The prominent men of Western Nevada could well afford to combine their means and take stock in an incorporated company for manufacturing woolen goods at this point. If the stock itself paid no dividends, the incidental advantages would much more than compensate for the absence of profits upon the investment. Our wool clip is a large one. We use a large amount of woolen goods. And yet Nevada pays San Francisco double prices for the article. Reno is the place for an establishment such as that of which we speak. Among the many advantages Reno possesses over any other locality for the building of a woolen mill it is a cheaper market to purchase in and a dearer market in which to sell. The beautiful Truckee river, with its rapid fall, supplies the town the greatest abundance of pure, cold, soft water. Here, also, we have cheap fuel, though for that matter this article would not be needed to any great extent—though the abundance of soft water is a great item to be taken into consideration in this connection. Aside from a selfish desire to see a woolen mill constructed on the banks of the bright and sparkling Truckee, we believe the project could not but repay with compound interest those who should undertake it. With a capital of $60,000 the effort could easily be made. We estimate that the cost of the works, including site, power, buildings, machinery, etc., complete, and in running order would be $45,000; leaving a working capital of $15,000. The capacity of such an establishment we put at 7,200 pair of blankets per year, worth $3, making $43,200; 3,600 yards of cassimeres, flannels, plaids, etc., in like proportion, $1 20 per yard, $43,200. Cost of material, and expenses of running, including taxes, insurance, and incidentals $64,800; leaving $21,600 as the net profits of the mill for one year; just three per cent. per month on the money invested; a pretty good interest in these dull times.

The Alta special from Washington says Secretary Bristow states there is no truth in the reported contract for a large quantity of silver for the Government; but he declines to say whether any contract is to be made in the future. Inquiry elsewhere results in asserting that a proposition to purchase $10,000,000 in bullion from the Consolidated Virginia is now under consideration. Flood & O'Brien offer to place that amount for exhibition in the Centennial buildings at their own risk, if the Government will contract to purchase it after the close of the exhibition. As forty per cent. of the bulk will be gold, this would require a contract for $6,000,000 in silver. Mr. Fair has gone to Philadelphia to see what arrangements can be made there.

ROUND DANCES.—Sometime since Brigham Young promulgated an edict decreeing that there shall henceforth be no round dances indulged in by the faithful; and moreover, that all balls shall begin at two o'clock in the afternoon and close by ten in the evening. Now comes another order, but from a different source. In Virginia City last Sunday morning, in St. Mary's Church, Father Coleman announced to the congregation that, by direction of Bishop O'Connell, Catholics of this diocese were forbidden to indulge in what are commonly called "round" dances—such as waltz, schottische, polka, etc. Whether the prohibition extends beyond the season of Lent was not stated.

Governor Garland of Arkansas is the most prominent Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator from that State.

EARLY OPENING OF THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

Whether an early opening of the political campaign in this State is desirable or not, it is more than probable that we shall soon be in the midst of the liveliest one ever known in the State. The members of the Republican State Central Committee will probably call a State Convention of their party at Carson, Virginia, Winnemucca or Elko, sometime in the latter part of May, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the National Convention, nominating candidates for Supreme Judge and Congress, and naming the Presidential Electors and Alternates. The apportionment of delegates will be upon the basis of the united Republican and Independent vote of the State, and the test will be simply "opposition to the restoration to power of the Democratic party." As a member of that Committee we are in favor of such action. In this and other neighborhoods there is nearly a unanimous sentiment that this convention should be called, to the end that all may have an opportunity of expressing their preference for National delegates, and for the further reason that it will obviate the necessity of a second convention, in effect killing two birds with one stone. And for the further and still better reason that every Republican voter in the State is as much entitled to a voice in the selection of these delegates as any member of the State Central Committee—no matter whether he swings a pick on the lowest levels of our mines or plows up the sod in our remotest valleys. But if the action of the Committee shall be as we have indicated no cause for complaint can possibly exist. The only objection to such a procedure will be that the political campaign will be too long. We do not consider the objection a good one. The people will have a chance to become better acquainted with the candidates, and if they are the right kind of men, it will be of mutual advantage to both voters and candidates. The Republican Committee meet in Virginia to-morrow. The Democratic Committee on the 25th. And the action of the latter will be guided to a great extent by the action of the former. So there is reason to believe that political matters will shortly be the engrossing and all-absorbing topic of conversation in Nevada. May the best men win.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.California.

Snow is two feet deep on Mount Diablo.

The Minneatta Mine in Inyo county has been sold for $30,000.

Twenty-eight and a half inches of rain has fallen at San Luis Obispo.

James Burns of Santa Cruz proposes to challenge the Los Angeles jumper to a match of supremacy.

The depth of water in the cellars at Stockton has compelled many families to move to higher ground.

About the only source of amusement left to Sacramentoans now is to climb to the top of the dome of the Capitol building and view the rushing torrents in the streets.

The track of the Southern Pacific Railroad south of Salinas City has been damaged by the late floods to such an extent as to keep trains from passing. A large force of men are at work making the necessary repairs.

The Sonoma and Marin County Agricultural Society is opposed to a general appropriation of public funds for the benefit of the State Agricultural Society, unless the said District Association also receives a donation.

A Los Angeles paper estimates that there are over 500 Chinese loafers in that city, who evidently live upon the wages of about the same number of their brethren, keeping an equal number of white laborers out of employment.

All the streams in Livermore Valley have been bank full for the past week. The ground is so thoroughly saturated that it will not require any more rain for the remainder of the season. Much of the land on the eastern side of the valley is so full of water that the grain is rotting, and it is feared will have to be replanted.

The Territories.
Snow is six feet deep at Evanston, Wyoming.

Two portable saw-mills have been shipped from Idaho to the Black Hills.

There are now eight deep-water vessels in the Puget Sound waters.

Butter is worth only 15 cents a pound and eggs a bit a dozen at Wallburg, W. T.

Without the frost kills it, Walla Walla will have an enormous fruit crop the present year.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

A dispatch from the National Capital, of date the 12th, gives the following gossip:

MRS. BELKNAP TO BE SUBPORNED.
The Committee on Expenditures of the War Department intend to subpoena Mrs. Belnap to appear before them.

PLENTY OF WORDS, BUT NO ACTION.
The Democratic Caucus met last night and discussed the financial question, but no vote was taken. The tendency is, however, toward hard money. The Caucus adjourned until Wednesday.

MORE TESTIMONY.
A special from St. Louis states that Dr. Terry, the representative of Durfee and Peck, the upper Missouri river post traders, has left for Washington to tell what he knows about post tradership.

LOUISIANA'S VACANT SENATORSHIP.
It is stated on good authority that the report circulated through the Associated Press that Governor Kellogg would appoint ex-Governor Warmoth to the position of U. S. Senator, made vacant by the rejection of Puchbeck's credentials, is untrue. Gov. Kellogg will probably make no appointment, but leave the vacancy open until the opening of the General Assembly next year.

GRAVESTONE WITNESSES.
Members of the Committee on Expenditures of the War Department say they will have in a day or two, witnesses from Iowa who know all about the letting of contracts for head-stones for soldiers' graves, and whose testimony will prove that immense frauds have been committed.

"GENTLEMAN GEORGE'S" TESTIMONY.
George H. Pendleton will not give his testimony regarding the claims of the Kentucky Central Railroad Company until after the officers of the road have testified.

DEFICIENT TESTIMONY.
District Attorney Wells expresses the opinion that the Committee on Expenditures of the War Department have not secured sufficient evidence to sustain the articles of impeachment against Belnap, or to secure an indictment before the Grand Jury.

PROGRAMME OF THE INVESTIGATION.
The House Judiciary Committee will begin to investigation the Belnap affair this week. The course of examination has not been definitely marked out, but it is probable that the Committee will first take up the new cases of post traderships, concerning which charges are made. It is morally certain that other trading posts have been sold by somebody, but it is doubtful whether the same clear evidence can be obtained as in the Fort Sill case.

THE EMMA MINE INVESTIGATION.
The Committee on Foreign Relations expect to examine ex-Senator Stewart on or before the 28th of the present month, concerning his connection with the Emma Mine, and it is expected that General Schenck, who left England for home a week ago, will appear before the Committee as soon as he can reach Washington. The Department of State has not answered the note of the Committee asking for the actual date of the resignation of General Schenck and all notes and telegrams in same connection.

"A GREAT HUMBUG."
A Virginia Miner's Experiences in the Black Hills.

The following private letter received in Virginia city gives anything but a glowing picture of life in the Black Hills:

CUSTER CITY, February 26, 1876.—I got in here on the 24th, and am much disappointed in the country. Men are working for three or four dollars per day at building cabins. I went down French creek and prospected, but could not get more than two cents to the pan. The gulch is so flat that you can not tell which way the water runs. I went out with a party of twenty-two. Fourteen of our party have started for Hill City. Hill City is sixteen miles from here. Most of the party will start on the back trip to-morrow morning. I will remain in Custer City, but I think it a great humbug. They have got one mill running, and another one is on the road, which will be here in a few days. I will stay here for I have got a good outfit, and will take the chances. All the town lots are taken up, and they are asking big prices for them. There is no money here. I have not seen a bit of dust. Don't think of coming here. I will post you.

"A clergyman's cat at Westfield, Mass., has shown some symptoms of natural depravity. After giving birth to seven kittens recently, of various colors, she removed the two blackest from the group and utterly refused to take any more notice of them. And this in defiance of the Fifteenth Amendment, which declares there shall be no distinction on account of color!" But why a clergyman's cat, we should like to know.

We have promise of fair weather. Yesterday was beautiful in every respect. We draw a long sigh of relief at the thought of its continuance.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

There is a hen in Gloucester, England, that can lay eleven eggs in a day.

Thiers gives his vote "with mathematical exactitude and juvenile vivacity."

The London Athenaeum promises a new poem by Swinburne, in a forthcoming number.

They say now that the Sultan will leave the throne to his brother, instead of his son.

Tennyson gets about a thousand dollars a year for holding the office of poet laureate in England.

The Museum of Bremen, founded by a private society of merchants, is to be presented to the city.

Don Carlos is not yet twenty-eight, and if he lives may be a regular King of Spain. It's a slippery situation, though, and much avoided by solid men.

A survey of all the large merchant steamships has been made by the British Government with a view to their use as a part of the Royal Navy in case of a foreign war.

During the reign of the present Czar, Russia has gained 35,347 square miles of territory and 22,546,000 souls in population, and reduced the national debt by 50,000,000 roubles.

The Gwendolen Harleth of George Eliot's new novel is said to have her original in the person of a young English lady at Hambourg, which place, rather than Balen, is described, although the latter name is incidentally given.

Preparations are making in Parliament Square, Westminster, London, for the erection of Mr. Wolner's statue of Lord Palmerston. The foundation of the pedestal will rest almost immediately on the crown of the tunnel of the Metropolitan District Railway.

Field Marshal Count Benedek, the defeated Sadowa, narrowly escaped death in Vienna the other night. He was going to the opera in a cab, when a mail-cart ran into his carriage. The pole of the mail cart struck the Marshal on the breast and broke one of his ribs.

In France they take chicken feathers, whose harsh stems have rendered them useless, chip the plume part from the stems with scissors, and put the plumes in a bag which, when full, is closed and kneaded with the hands, so that the feathers are felted together, forming a down of unbroken fabric and great lightness, which sells in Paris for $2 a pound.

At the Dublin Lord Mayor's banquet, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland said the country had been more prosperous last year than ever before. Emigration and pauperism had sensibly decreased, two prominent banks were paying a dividend of 12 per cent. and the deposits in the Bank of Ireland amounted to £1,000,000 sterling more in 1875 than in the previous year.

CAUGHT IN THEIR OWN TRAP.

The investigations at Washington disclose Democratic dishonesties—General Scattering of the Untruthful.

A Washington dispatch of the 12th says that unexpected developments are reported to have taken place in the course of the investigations started by the Democrats, and it is known that they would be very glad if they could stop their inquiries just where they are, go on with the Appropriation bills and adjourn Congress as quickly as possible. One Democratic member of Congress went to New York last Thursday, with the intention of leaving secretly for Europe on Saturday, in order to escape the necessity of giving testimony against other prominent Democrats. It is not known yet whether he did leave. Other Democratic members are known to be fluttering in New York.

A Modern Crusade Goes to Smash.

A dispatch dated New York, March 12th says:

Daniel Drew has gone into voluntary bankruptcy. The papers in the suit proceeding were filed on Saturday afternoon in the United States Court by Mr. Drew's lawyer. Financial embarrassments for the last year consequent on his heavy losses in Wall street three years ago, were the immediate cause of this unexpected proceeding. Mr. Drew stated to the reporters that his liabilities would probably amount to six hundred thousand dollars, but the amount of assets he was unable to state without examining schedules which have been filed with other papers. Their amount would depend upon the prices his property would bring at forced sale. The endowments of Drew Theological Seminary at Madison, N. J., for $250,000 and that of Wesleyan University at Middletown, Connecticut, for $100,000, are secured by mortgages on his farms in Putnam county, this State. He owns five or six.

Buying, 38 1/2	Selling, 38
Gold in New York yesterday, 114 1/2

THE RIGHT PLACE TO GO TO.—Nick

Hammersmith has fitted up his new shop next door to the Reno Library Rooms. In elegant style, his new patent chairs can't be beat, and everything else is arranged in regular San Francisco style. But this is not all, in order to do justice to everybody, he has engaged Mr. John Belz, the champion barber of San Francisco, who can go over your face so easy that you don't know you are getting shaved at all. Drop in the new shop once, just to get one of Mr. Belz's champion shaves, next door to Library Rooms, and you will be satisfied.

THE ENGINE.—Our new steamer was taken off the cars yesterday. A hundred men caught hold of the ropes, the Reno Brass Band formed the head of the procession, the parade was continued through all the prominent streets, and everybody cast their eagle eye at our new $5,000 steamer. It elicited frequent bursts of admiration. A description of it has been published in these columns, and the statements then made are borne out by the facts. We are now well provided against fire. A steam engine and a hand engine and plenty of water, and plenty of firemen.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. Gray & Isaacs, of Carson, arrived here yesterday. These gentlemen purpose opening a dry goods store in Reno, and remain with us permanently. They have secured a location on Virginia street, opposite Sunderland's, and will soon have their building erected, and new and handsome goods stowed in it.

LECTURE.—The Reno Library Club

lately extended an invitation to Hon. C. E. DeLong to deliver his lecture on "Japan" in this town. Mr. DeLong has accepted the invitation and will come as soon as convenient, of which due notice will be given. This is the first of a series of lectures to be given for the benefit of the Club.

U. S. Circuit Court.—The March term of the United States Circuit Court, for the State of Nevada, will be held at Carson City on the 20th inst., Judge Sawyer presiding.

Hon. THOS. WREN, of Eureka, passed through town yesterday on his way to Virginia City. He reports things lively at "the second city in the State."

FLYNN'S VERSION.—In justice to

Mr. Flynn we publish his version of the shooting scrape. He claims that the opposite party has persecuted him in many ways. That he was not under the influence of liquor at the time. That Hutton was the assaulting party, thus compelling him to act as he did in self defense. That he had no desire to kill or be killed. That he will protect himself when in danger. That he is a peaceable citizen and business man, and honestly desires to pursue his avocation without molestation, and will not molest any one himself, unless for cause. All of which is a fair statement.

ANOTHER LUMBER YARD.—Meacham

& Hamlin, of the Verdi Lumber Co., will open a lumber yard in Reno about the first of next month. They have purchased two acres of ground on the south side of the river, near the V. & T. R. R., for their yard. These gentlemen own several mills on the Truckee and in Dog Valley, and are perfectly able to keep an immense stock of lumber, etc., and sell the same at low prices.

RAILROAD MATTERS.—The blockade East of us still continues. A snow-plow went through here yesterday noon on its way to the front to help raise the blockade. A local train was made up for the accommodation of local travel. It is thought that it will take several days to raise the Eastern blockade, despite the most strenuous efforts of the railroad company. Everything west of us and on the V. & T. moves smoothly.

LECTURE.—Mr. Bob. Morris, the great Masonic lecturer, who is now on his way to California, will lecture here next Monday evening. Mr. Morris is the veteran of Masonry, and has visited the Holy Land. He comes highly recommended, and no doubt the brothers of the mystic tie will embrace this opportunity.

THE CROPS.—We have conversed with farmers from all sections of the county, and the general opinion is that immense crops may be expected this year. They all agree that this will be the greatest harvest of the county, as there will be an abundance of water for irrigating purposes.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Sam. Robinson, of Painter & Co., type foundry of San Francisco, favored us with a call last evening. Sam is a good friend to the printers, and they all stick to him. One of the very best men in the business, and Painter couldn't get along without him.

THROW IT OFF.—The Board of Fire

Underwriters should immediately inform the agents of insurance companies here that the additional 40 per cent. insurance tax standing against this town will now be stricken from the books, and that risks can be written less than per cent.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Mr. Orth, the Republican candidate for Governor in Indiana, it is stoutly asserted, will "pocket" a part of the Democratic German vote of that State, on account of his ability to speak fluently the German as well as the English language when he takes the stump.

The little town of Batavia, Cler-mont county, Ohio, which contains only 750 inhabitants, is a good place for raising office-holders. In 1872 forty-three of its citizens were Federal officers, and at this time twenty-four are employed in Washington, and some others hold Government offices elsewhere.

In a private letter to a friend,

Judge Hughes of Virginia says: "I am rejoiced at the difficulty which both of the political parties have in making a party platform on the finances and currency. Those are not legitimate subjects of party contention, and Congress ought to legislate and the people ought to act on these subjects independent of party."

Yale College is remarkably well represented on the rival tickets in the Connecticut canvass. Governor Ingersoll was graduated from that institution in the class of 1840, and Lieutenant-Governor Sill in the class of 1852. Of the Republican candidates, Henry C. Robinson was graduated in the class of 1853, Frederick J. Kingsbury, in the class of 1845, and General Walker, though a graduate of Amherst College, is a Professor in the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

ALL parties owing the Reno Lumber Co. are hereby requested to settle their indebtedness on or before the 1st day of April, 1876. The business will still be carried on by the same firm, but upon a CASH BASIS. All orders accompanied with the coin will be promptly attended to.
